

Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage Announces Top Sales Associates in Atlanta for 2014

ATLANTA (March 25, 2015) – Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage, a leading real estate brokerage in Greater Atlanta, announced its top sales associates of 2014 this week. Robin Blass of the Dunwoody office was named the No. 1 individual sales associate in both units sold and sales volume, and received the International President’s Premier Award – the highest award level earned by an Atlanta agent. The Debbie Sonenshine team of the Sandy Springs office was named No. 1 in sales volume and Kevin Qualls of the Johns Creek/Duluth office was named No. 1 team in units sold. Both Sonenshine and Qualls received the International President’s Circle Team award.

Four individual sales associates received the International President’s Elite Award, including Carole Short of the Dunwoody office, Allen Snow of Midtown, John Thur of Marietta/West Cobb, and Sally Westmoreland of the Intown office.

Three teams received the International President’s Circle Team Award: The Lund Group of Roswell, as well as Sonenshine and Qualls.

Several individual agents received the International President’s Circle award: Mary Wynkoop of Roswell, Betsy Malcolm of Dunwoody; Anita Bryde, Grace Hodges and Judy Linderman of Alpharetta/North Point; Toni Itkin and Kim Russell of Buckhead West Paces Ferry; Kathleen Sickeler and Mike Kondalski of Intown; Mary Russell, Marsha Floyd and Kelli Hayes of Marietta/West Cobb; Sandra Holmes of Sandy Springs and Tricia Leuallen of Cobb.

“These teams and sales associates are the best of the best, and put in a tremendous effort in 2014,” said Charlotte Sears, President of Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage, Atlanta. “Their market knowledge and dedication to customer service have allowed them to achieve exceptional results.”
